Come September and Corona High was back to its normal self. Jeff Jenson and Susan Miller were busy getting their schedules changed, while Francis Garcia was saying Hi to friends that she hadn't seen since last June, or at least not since Saturday night. Sophomores had trouble finding their first class and everyone was looking for Mrs. Rubin as the 7:50 bell rang...

"WHATS YOUR LOCATION"

8 Who were those guys that scurried around campus, hiding behind sunglasses and walkie talkies? They always seemed to be incognito, but it was only the look that came with their authority. Some called them the Administration, and they only looked tough. Just ask Todd Simon, he'll tell you that cruising with Mr. Weber is kind of fun. Then there was Mr. Sellman who resembled a secret serviceman. One got the feeling that the President couldn't be too far away. Mrs. Naylor could always be seen running around campus. What about the time Pat Masson forgot his pants for the band concert, and Mr. DiPaolo had to drive him to Norco High in his camper? Mrs. Hadcox in the Student Store could always tell you everything that was happening on campus. As the Activities Director, she had many responsibilities, Scott Ozenne said she always had to push those leadership kids to get things planned. With the beginning of each new semester, we all got scheduled into classes that best fulfilled our academic needs. Remember getting put into a class which you knew nothing about? And when you went to your counselor to switch the class, they always told you to come back in two weeks after things settled? So you went back two weeks later, and they told you to "Stick it out" because it was too late to change your class. You were miserable for a few days, but soon realized that the class wasn't that bad. The teacher was funny, the homework was easy, and the guy next to you was kind of cute... Photo 1. IT WAS
NEW!

On September tenth, Corona High was a different place, invaded with herds of sophomores who all seemed to be wandering in a daze, looking for their classes. Junior and seniors too were having problems, parking spaces in the student parking lot were inhabited by faculty, to say nothing of the shock that first period started ten minutes earlier. After a tough two periods of lectures about class rules, snack was a welcome relief. Short but welcome. The snack bar offered Brooke Fair and the campus 'Coke-Olics' a choice between Diet, Cherry, or Classic Coke for the first time, only to find she didn't have time to drink it. The new bell schedule had also taken five minutes off snack. Ron Reid found his "in between breaks" naps longer since classes also were affected by the new bells. Regardless, most students still worked hard to earn good grades. For the first time the administration awarded to the top ten percent of each class an academic letter. This gave the likes of Brad Glassic recognition for his academic achievement as well as his athletic. As the year progressed the CHS mascot "Sam" was introduced, adding humor to the rallies and games. Bill Humes entertained the crowds at football games, and Leslie Gossett gave the black suit life at winter sporting events and assemblies. Photo 1. Leslie Gossett 2. Bill Humes 3. Laura Anglin 4. ENGLISH AND SPEECH

Writing a paragraph about an admired person or compiling a vast array of not cards and information helped juniors Andrea Jones and Alyssa Dorn express themselves in written word. For the second year, Mrs. Hipple's classes found satisfaction in writing to American service men and women around the world. "Getting started was hard, but once I got going it was fun," said Ron Lopez, and everyone likes to get letters. Literature students relived the Mississippi river-life with Mark Twain, ancient Rome with Shakespeare, and contemporary emotion with John Updike. Required of us all English and Speech helped improve our communication skills, gave us frustration, a sense of history, and enjoyment. Photo 1. Mrs. Dover 2. Mr. Phillips 3. Mr. Perkins 4. With Homecoming still a week away, snack time was filled with exuberant activity as campus clubs presented their candidates for court. Skits varied from Alicia Dorsey's caveman to Kurt Tengen as the 'Woman Maker' in the football skit; to Madrigal's 'Wheel of Fortune'; and Dan Nazarek's balloon filled fantasy. When the confetti and cardboard were cleared away the nominees for the 1985 Homecoming Court were: Pam Atwood, nominated by Girl's Tennis; Kristine Barnes-Girl's Soccer; Jeannie Boone-Coronettes; Sandi Colapinto-Lettermen; Geri Higgins-Madrigal Singers; Suzi Honeter-Boy's Soccer; Chris Laquay-Baseball; Adrianna McGrew-Football; Lissa Miller- GAA; Michelle Robinson-Girl's Basketball; Sonya Rodgers-Wrestling; Elke Rosenbauer-Softball; Jennifer Scarpine-S.A.D.D.; Pippi Suitor-Choir; Julie Smith-Track and Cross-Country; Gina Stabile-Boy's Basketball; Keri Starr-Volleyball; Barbara Szakacs-Los Amigos; Jana Thacker-Leadership; Shirley Valiquette-Band; Martha Villicana-Mecha; Tusdi Vopat- Pep Squad; and Lena Rachell-Swim Team. On Friday, the principal's quad was beautifully decorated with banners, balloons, and colorful streamers by Kelly DeLange and her ASB committee for the announcement of court. Megan Sjurson, playing Peter Pan, announced Gina Stabile to court as her "Tinkerbell of 1985"; followed by Karen Kremer's Red Riding Hood, and Rachael Horn's Frog as the characters of David Burrough's fantasy presented Kristine, Sandi, Suzi, Lena, Elke, and Pippi to complete the 1985 Court.

The next week was Homecoming. Students such as Sonya Rodgers involved themselves in the week's dress-up days and the snack and lunchtime activities. On Monday, the court attacked the juniors and sophomores in the balloon bust. At lunch, we saw Mr. Perkins outseat Ms. Davis for the last musical chair. Tuesday was the slave auction. The court, in togas, waited to be sold with Kristine Barnes bringing the highest bid of $21.00. On costume day there were a variety of costumes; from geisha girls like Debbie Griffin and Dana Light to Mark Grizzle and Bill Hume's punk rockers. At lunch students threw creme pies at the court, an unforgettable sensation. Thursday was slob day with Diane Behrens and Kim White playing the Eggplant Swing while at lunch the court got dunked over and over again by campus marksmen. Finally Friday came; students and faculty wore red and gold to show their spirit. Photo 1: Gina Stabile 2. On Friday Corona's own "Once Upon a Fantasy" parade took place on Sixth Street. At 3 o'clock the FFA color guard lead off the parade followed by frolicking and colorful clowns. CHS's marching band, rifle and flag team provided the parade cadence. Behind them, Mecha Club members flung candy to the crowd from their colorful vehicle. Next came the honored Grand Marshals-Mr. and Mrs. Mackey. The sophomore class presented 'Disneyland Spirit of '88' on their float. Christy Hopkins, Tina Bradford, and Chris Knaak were among the sophomores dressed as Walt Disney characters. Raney Junior High's band and flags made their appearance, followed by the FFA float entry, 'Beat the Huskies'. Waving, Kim Freeman, 1984 Homecoming Queen, led the 1985 Homecoming Court along the parade route. Football players, Kirk Harkey and Kurt Tengen were right behind on motorcycles. 'We're off to See the Wizard' was the Junior float entry, complete with their own yellow brickroad. The Senior float featured their fantasy 'Prom Cruise Ship Wreck,' with Tracy Labrie, Eric Wilson and Steve Rodriguez portraying their ultimate fantasy, Hawaiian style. The traditional red screaming fire engine filled with the spirited pep squad, finished off the parade. Photo 1: Roseland Warner, Teresa Goldston. 2. Lisa Bell, Amy Johnson. 3. Jerry Medina 4. IT WAS A DRAW

During Homecoming week the girl's volleyball team met and defeated the Norco Cougars in a highly-charged match. Meanwhile, girl's tennis upset the highly ranked team from North and lost a tight duel with Norco. Lacking only three points the boy's Cross Country team suffered a defeat to Arlington, while the girls continued their successful season . . . and on the football field the Panthers played an exciting game which kept the high-spirited homecoming crowd on their feet. SIGNALS, SOCIOLOGY, AND STOCKS

Along with Social Science, State Requirements (or "Driver's Ed. as it is commonly called) is a class that every sophomore must face. Surprisingly, most sophomores actually looked forward to having this class. However, according to Jodie Blix and Shannon Nowak, the class did not live up to their expectations. Sue Groover could not wait to be done with all of the busywork involved in the class and get her license. Out on the road, during Driver's Training, many new drivers had some pretty exciting experiences. For instance, Heather Umstead lost control of the Driver's Ed. car, went off the edge of the road and hit a mudbank, splattering the car with mud. Elisa Crabtree broke her mailbox by backing into it. According to Mr. Fritz, Kiersten Hemborg's turnabouts were the worst he'd seen in his twenty-three years of teaching. He also said that he named a curve in a road "St. Katherine's Curve" because it was there that Katherine Mirando "almost killed" Mr. Fritz and the other students present. While sophomores were struggling with their three-point turns, Juniors were trying to memorize dates and events in American History and Seniors were watching their stocks go up or down in their Economics classes and learning about the Constitution in their Government classes. 1. On Halloween the campus was filled with even stranger characters than usual. Nerds, bunnies, babies, witches, and Barbara Leaming as Mother Superior. The ASB sponsored snack and lunch activities to get both faculty and students involved. Again this year Mrs. Hippie played a mean game of musical chairs. Halloween night, that enchanted time when the streets became filled with hordes of children seeking treats. Parties and more parties was the bill of fare for the high school students

College Fair

The week of October 28th many students attended the annual College Fair in the library and cafeteria. Representatives from independent, military, state, and community institutions of higher learning came to tell students about entrance requirements, housing, financial aid, and answer individual questions. During lunch many students took advantage to talk on a one to one basis with the representatives and pick up brochures.

COMPETITION BREAKS BOREDOM

A popular song is blaring and can be heard as students are coming out of their second period classes. They flock to crowd around the marked off area in the West Quad. Eric Arnold is seen setting up a large black podium while one of the A.S.B. students holds a microphone and is heard saying something like "We need 3 seniors, 3 juniors and 3 Sophomores . . . Come and participate in the Popsicle Shave? After the coaxing and bribing of the A.S.B. students, several people such as Karen Cutter, Jennifer Johnson, and Suzi Honeter walk down and the game begins. These games were called the Wednesday Activities. A.S.B. students began to plan them as early as August at "Camp Hadcox". Most of the games were successful in getting the students involved in the year-long competition between the sophomores, juniors and seniors. Some, however, were not so successful. Remember "Mr. Cool" — the game where you won by sitting on a block of ice the longest? Wes Speake, Matt Forester and Jim Lawson sat on ice blocks all during Snack and nobody ever won. Remember the "Whipped cream pile-on" when the whipped cream kept falling off of Tracy Draper's head so Tracy and April Townsend, frustrated, had a whipped cream fight? Those games were sure a lot of fun and they gave us a moment of entertainment during the day. Photo 1. Lauren Laliberte, Kim Neese 2. Elizabeth Perez 3. Steve Kremer 4. A LONG WAY HOME

Last fall, Sue Rhinehart, along with her cast of eighteen, produced the original play "A Long Way Home" a comedy old western farce. Besides acting and memorizing lines, actors were required to help with set construction. Many of the costumes used were hand-made by Rhinehart, with help by Tia Goldston, Buffy Gipson, and Mrs. Gipson. For Scott Ozenne this was his tenth production whereas Marcie Beasley was new to the stage and was a bit reluctant when asked to tryout. But after five-and-a-half weeks of rehearsal and four weekends of workcrew, the cast and crew performed a delightful production with half of the proceedings being donated to the needy farmers in the United States.

CROSS COUNTRY

BARNES & SJURSON LEAD GIRLS TO CIF

Number 1. The 1985 Cross Country season produced Coach Newton's first girl's league championship, going 7-0 in league. The girls team was lead by freshman Jamie Barnes, junior, Meghan Sjurson and senior Pam Randel. at CIF they placed a strong fifth, just missing the trip to the finals. Our boys had a tough season, losing to Arlington, Perris, and Hemet. The boys were edged out of a CIF berth by a coin toss with Moreno valley at the league meet. Doug Barnes, senior; Gustavo Arce, sophomore; and Louie Barrera, junior lead the varsity squad. The JV's year was a year that hadn't been seen for over a decade. The JV's had much stronger competition and were beaten by rival Hemet. With one loss they still won league, Shane Lindsey and Pedro Nava had excellent runs at league finals. VOLLEYBALL

Pride • Integrity • Guts • Spirit

The Corona High Volleyball team fought to a third-place finish in the competitive Ivy League. The girls finished the season with a 10-5 league record, and a 13-7 overall record. Seniors Keri Starr, Kellie Greene, Geri Higgins, and Tricia Kellie led the Panthers into the CIF playoffs. Although the girls played a tough, competitive match, they were defeated in the playoffs by eventual section runner-up Magnolia.

Keri Starr, a co-captain, was selected Most Valuable Player by her teammates. Keri led the team in serves and points. The other co-captain, Geri Higgins, was awarded the Bill Foster Memorial Award for Most Outstanding Player for her spiking and blocking skills. Junior Janet Ibbetson was selected Most Improved Player.

The Panthers had a well-balanced game with Juniors Kristie Young and Denise Wilson setting the offensive pace. Juniors Julie Vitale, Chris Weaver, Darla Bell, and Amy Johnson led the team with outstanding coverage and defense. Sophomores Shellie McCall and Renee McCall will add to the team's championship quest next season.

This was a building year for the JV volleyball team! Coach Courtney Doolittle worked hours teaching young players like Lisa Cervantes, Rhonda Felix, Sylvia Ortiz, and Lori Chun the skills of passing the ball well. Developing into very fine setters on the JV team were Michelle Roberts, Cheri Lara, Dede Berner, and Tracey Ferguson.

Leading the JV volleyball attack was Chrissy Wolfe, Paula Varela, Kim Wright, and Denise Hallett. Heather Umstead joined the team late, but was a great addition.

Sophomore Cheri Lara was selected Most Valuable Player by her teammates, while Dede Berner was voted the Most Improved Player. The JV team was the MOST IMPROVED in the Ivy League. At the beginning of the season, the team couldn't serve the ball over the net. By the end of the season, the girls were winning at least one game from each opponent.

Corona's Volleyball Future Sure Looks Bright!

GIRLS

TENNIS TEAM

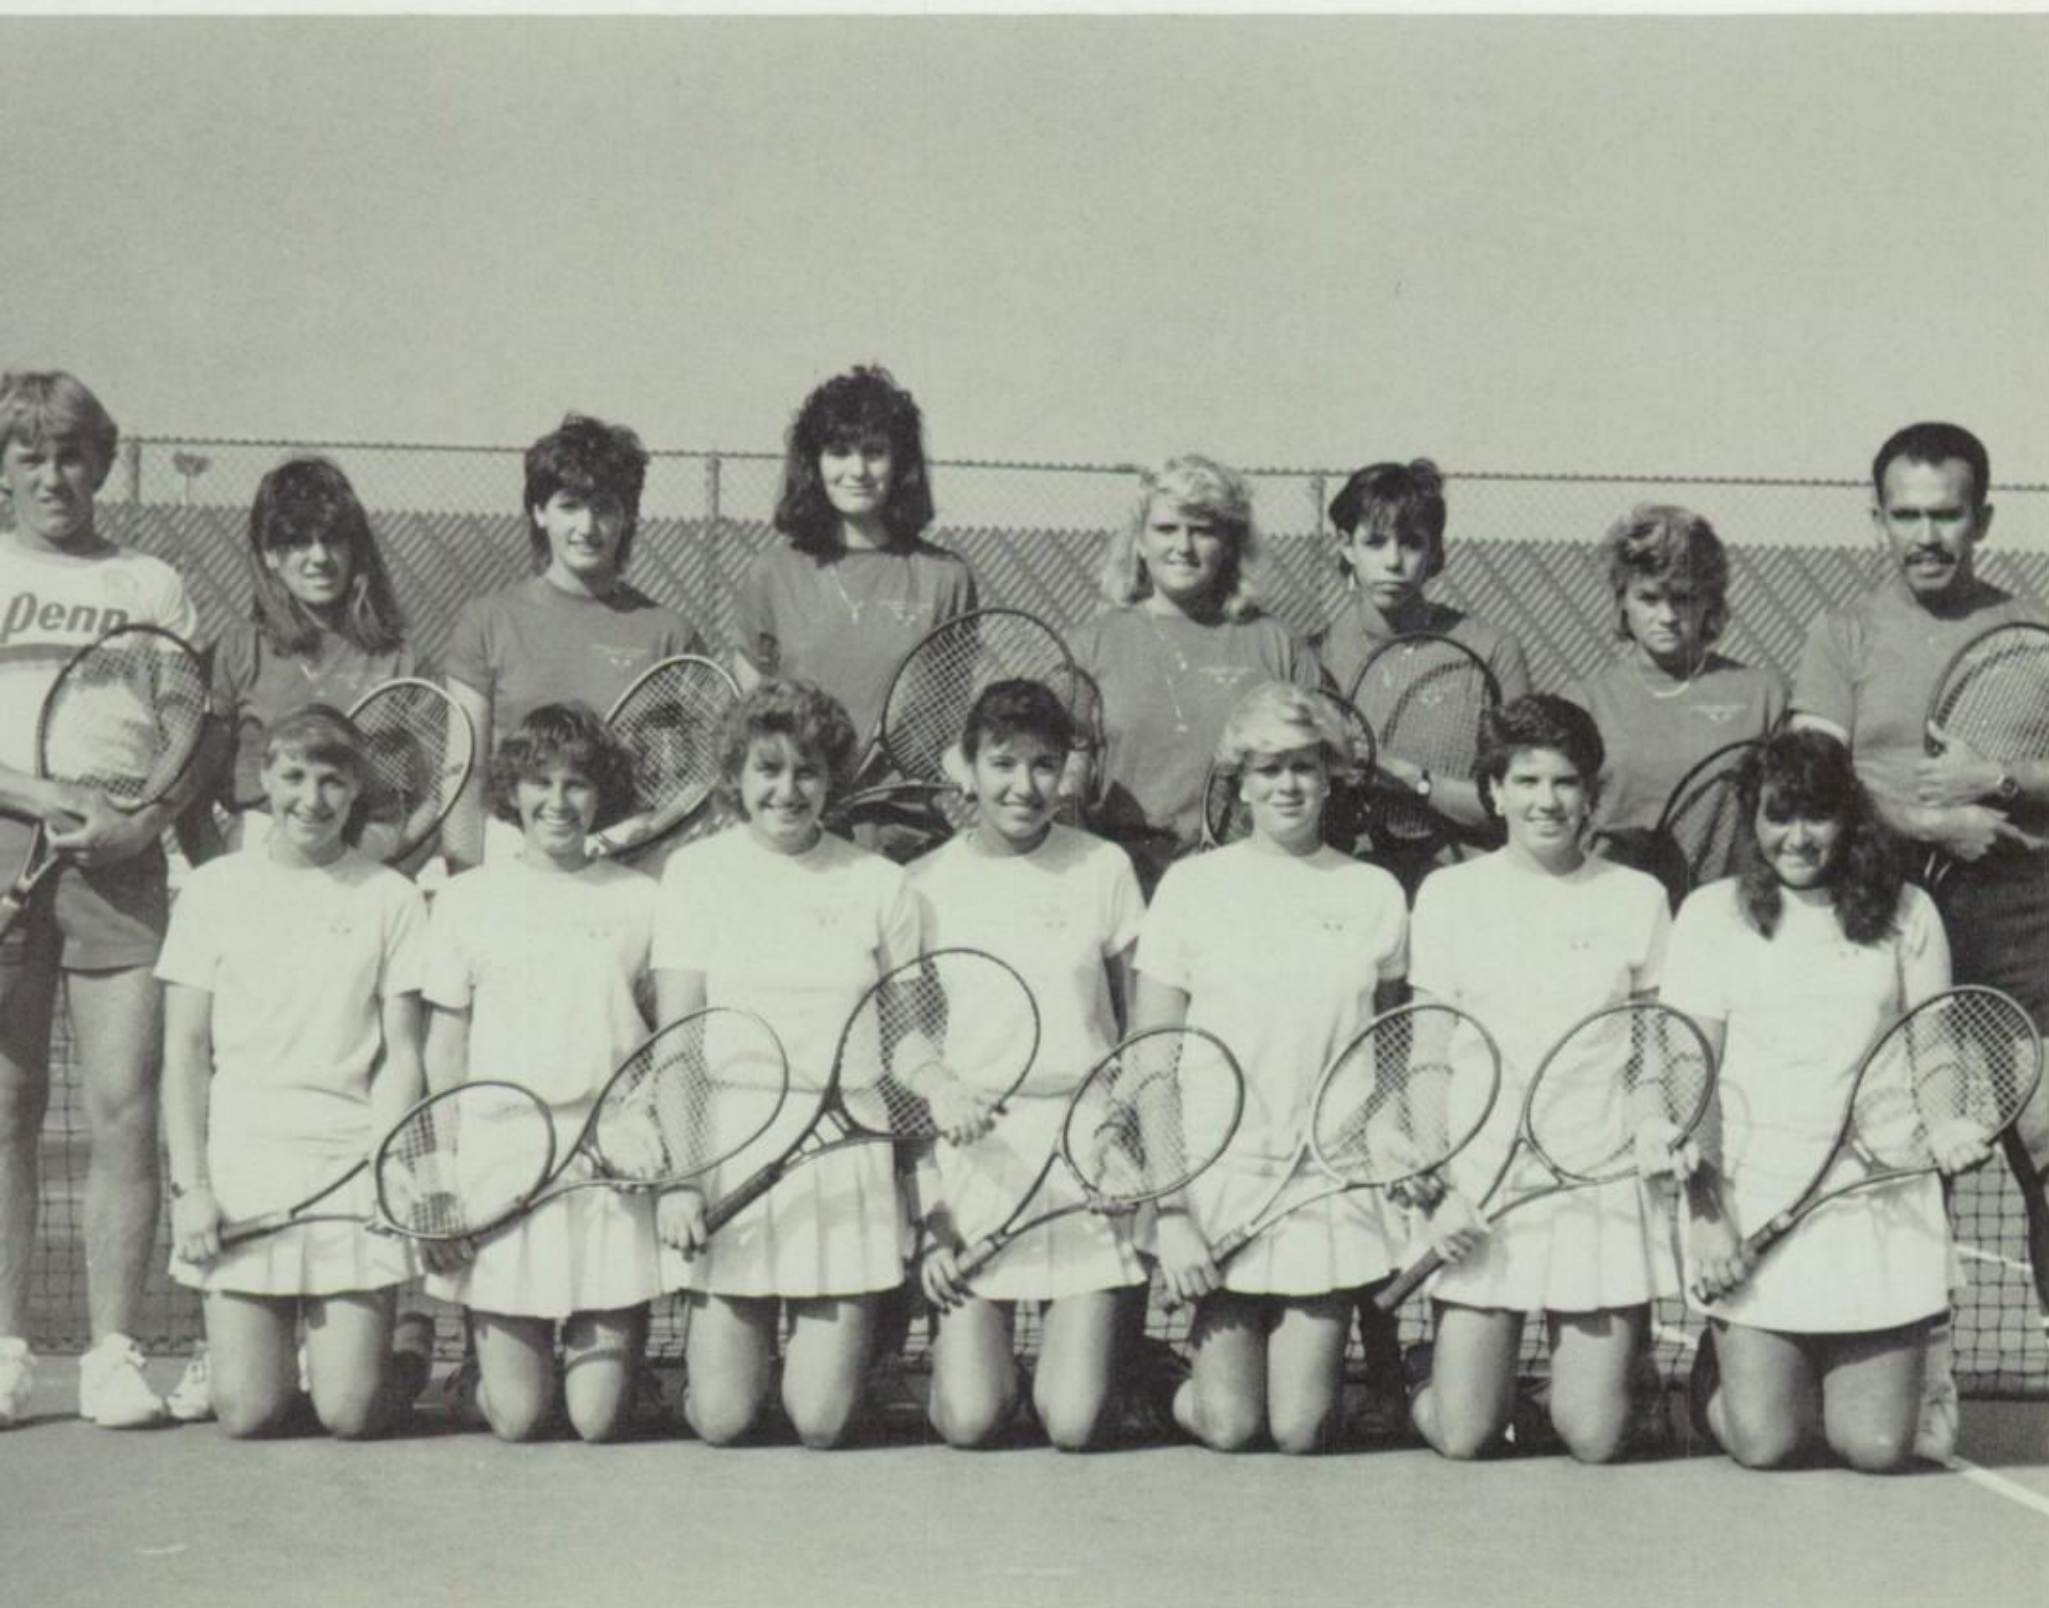

BYLSMA MAKES ALL-IVY LEAGUE HONORS

The Corona Senior High Girls Tennis Team started the season minus two returning lettermen. The slack was amply taken care of by new comers Cindy Soliday, Nicole Garcia, and Becky Turvey. According to last years finish, and taking into consideration other talent in the league, Corona was expected to finish 4th or 5th. North and Hemet proved too be an experience. Against Ramona, Corona swept winning (11-7) with the second match being an easy victory for C.H.S. Norco proved to be the closest rival for Corona. During the first encounter against Norco, Corona ended in a tie (9-9) but Corona won based on the number of games (73-72). In October Corona, only short 2 points, expected a defeat against Norco making it a close exhilarating game for Corona. The combination of Michelle Robinson and Cindy Soliday proved to be one of the best ever at Corona Senior High. During the meet against Hemet Michelle and Cindy swept all 3 matches (7-5), (6-0), and (7-6). The Corona team ended league play with an overall record of (11-7) and a league record of (-5). Although tied for 3rd in league with Norco, Norco went to C.I.F. because of head-to-head competition with Corona. Dawn Blysmas worked hard during the off season and her hard work paid off as our number one player. Through the season Dawn swept most of her single matches, which lead her to win ALL-IVY League Honors at league finals in November. Mr. Nino awarded Michelle Robinson most valuable player for doubles, captain, and most inspirational at Mr. and Mrs. Soliday's house. Dawn Blysmas received most valuable player for singles and Becky Alba most improved.

The 85 Varsity Football team went into their season with high hopes. The team, under the new command of Coach Munson, wasn't promising the world, but was trying to bring light into the usually dark Corona gridiron. The first three games (preseason) were a learning experience; losing all three games, Corona was shut out, in points, but not in spirit. During the Eisenhower game a cheer broke loose as Tim Malcolm stopped an Eagles' threat for a score. The team played hard against Norte Vista. Here the new weapon of John Brockie and Jason Young was unleashed. Brockie threw for 115 yards, 75 going to his wide receiver Young. With the league opener against Arlington, football class proved to be still in session, with another loss. Finally Corona did it in the Ramona game. The team scored! Young kicked a 12 yard field goal giving them the lead. The game however continued until at the final gun the lead was gone. It was a moral victory that ended the season's shut-out. Moreno Valley, also winless looked to be the first victim of the Panthers. John Medina caught a screen pass from Brockie and took it to the 1 yard line. The team tried but just couldn't get it in for the year's first TD. During the second quarter Scott Gavett, Jesse Ramirez and Rick Howard sacked the Moreno Valley quarter back and Kirk Harkey had an outstanding game on defense. Although, Moreno went away with the win, Corona had a good outing at defense. Corona's first touchdown was against North, but even that wasn't enough and North handed Corona another loss. When Gavett took the ball in from the 1 yard line the fans went wild as if the league championship had just been won. After the TD, Gene Stuckenschneider put it through the uprights to give Corona seven. Coach Munson said everyone was great. Milo Way was said to be "an Animal" by Munson. The animal intercepted two of North's passes. Together Gary Davider and Ramirez made a total of 22 tackles, many on key plays. Gavett had a total yard gain of 101 yards. Corona had a total of 253 yards. But the most important statistic was the 7 on the scoreboard. The next game against Norco, Corona scored 3 TDs. The first of the Panther touchdowns was delivered by a 42 yard pass from Brockie to Tom Byrne. Gavett added two and the game looked promising for a win. Again Brockie teamed with Byrne for a 38 yard touchdown. The Corona team only trailed by 1 touchdown. The momentum was broken with a fumble that allowed Norco to score and take away the hopes for a victory. Scott Longerbone came in to give Corona a final spark. He drove the Norco Cougars back and passed a 8 yarder to John Medina. Norco went away the winner, but Corona had had their best outing of the season. Scoring was now a common event in the Panther game. The team put 13 on the board against Perris. Corona drove from the 31 and then scored. Gavett took the ball in from the eight. The next TD was from Longerbone to Byrne which gave Corona 13. Unfortunately it wasn't enough and Corona was 0-6. The Panthers had one more chance to bring home a victory, and yes they scored. But, the Hemet team didn't let Corona get the win. Gavett again brightened up with an 18 yard pass to Snappy Villasenor. The season was over and Corona had a record of 0-6. The team as individuals played hard and never gave up in spirit. After all its not if you lose its how you play the game. At the Lion's Club Annual football banquet awards were given to Tom Byrne-Player of the Year; Milo Way-Best Defensive Back; Rick Howard-Best Defensive Lineman; Kurt Tengen-Best Offensive Lineman; Scott Gavett-Best Offensive Back; Scott Medina-Most Improved; John Medina-Coaches Award; Steve Glenn-Mr. Hustle; and Kirt Harkey-Inspirational. JV Awards went as follows: Matt Forester-Most Improved; Russell Felix-Most Improved; and Sid Avalos received JV Captain honors with Brockie and Harkey winning Varsity captain. Tom Byrne and Milo Way were All-League selections for second team while Gary Tom LeBeau and Scott Gavett received honorable mentions. GROUPS

Year long spirit was the main goal for this year's Executive Council. The group got an early start at "Camp Hadcox". Within the two day planning session they got to know each other and plan activities for the upcoming year. Led by ASB President Jana Thacker and directed by sponsor Mrs. Hadcox, the activities relating to the student body as a whole were planned. Getting more people involved was Thacker's main concern as the group laid plans for the fall assemblies, an exciting Homecoming and the Wednesday snack activities. Council members were assigned to projects such as Homecoming with Sandi Colapinto-chr. Under her Kelly DeLange, Kathy Wolowicz, Pattie Whitehat, and Valerie Bulthuis chaired some of the specific activities. Snack activities were run by Colapinto with the assistance of Eric Arnold. Kristine Barnes was assigned the Christmas food drive. The Council again sponsored the MDA benefit Dance and planned the 25th Birthday Party for Corona High, again involving a large part of the student body in its planning. The Blood Drive gave students a chance to give to the Riverside Blood Bank, the drive was organized by Whitehat. Spirit Week was again a week of varied activities, organized by Wolowicz, the week ended with the crowning of Spirit King. Eric Wilson, senior class pres., organized many special activities around graduation, as Kelly DeLange and the junior officers gave us a successful Prom at the Costa Mesa Country Club. As the year came to a close Thacker and the council could look back on many successes, homecoming, charity, and more people being involved in student government. The pep squad, led by captains Kathy Wolowicz (song), Karen Cutter (varsity), and Sandy Randel (junior varsity) brought spirit to Corona High with great enthusiasm. Beginning the year with camp at the University of Calif., Irvine, the songleaders won a superior trophy and the team won the "Unity Award." Throughout the year the pep squad performed at pep rallies, assemblies, football games, and basketball games. They also attended other sports as well. In January, they began indoor competitions. According to Wolowicz, the 85-86 year was "a lot better than the last two years." "This year's team was a talented and enthusiastic group, they got along well with each other and everyone around them."

PEP SQUAD

Coronette's Flag and Rifle teams were a hard working competitive groups of girls who tried their hardest to be the best. With a new advisor, Miss Minor, the captains, Jeanie Boone (Flags) and Deanna Mault (Rifles) brought the school to attention. Over the summer before the '85-'86 year the Coronettes went to the University of California, Irvine to "take the lead" the year before them. Coming home with the "Spirit Stick" the Coronettes were ready for success. Performing at Varsity football games, basketball games, parades, and pep rallies, the team brought color and enthusiasm to the entire school. Beginning floor competitions in January, the flag and rifle teams worked to become the best for the Miss Drill Team U.S.A. competition held in Los Angeles. Photo 1. YEARBOOK

3 Sometimes, instead of just remembering that this or that happened, live moments need to be lived and then relived. "Shut up Muffie!" ... long explanatory explanations followed by "what am I supposed to do?, what's this?" ... D-I-E scratched in on the lower corner of the chalk board ... "scratch 'n' sniff and a furry cover" ... "people, cropping pictures does not mean actually cutting them!!" ... Understandably every year leaves room for improvement. This Year's moments however, are well ... UNIQUELY, UNIQUE!

VOCAL MUSIC

Choir • Madrigals

On campus there is a select group of students who belong to singing — rather singing belongs to them, they're the Madrigals, chosen through auditions only. So what's a Madrigal? Well ... without sounding too kinky: they're students who lie on the floor to learn how to breathe, sing in the dark and play kazoos, all of which, at once. O.K. admittedly the truth has been bent slightly, but not entirely. They take their music seriously and even though being a Madrigal requires time and certain responsibilities — they're gratified with food, donations, and the interaction with people. Besides, they get out of classes and miss school! This year's officers: President-Beverly Turk; Vice Pres.-Kerry Higbee; Secretary/Treas.-Barbara Gipson. Members: Stephen Action, Steven Corey, Melissa Davidson, Anthony Descheres, Linette Devin, Theresa Goldston, Jo Ann Griffin, Geri Higgins, Kathryn Hilditch, Melissa Kane, Michelle McGuire, Richard McIntosh, Erin Nelson, Carl Pruett, Michael Rose, Carlainya Templeton.

"Friends Don't Let Friends Drive Drunk," is Students Against Drunk Driver's motto. And with key chains, buttons, activities they get their point across. During Homecoming they passed out "Contracts for Life" and Buddy cards. As we neared the holiday season, we had many school activities to keep us busy. One activity which promoted spirit and enthusiasm was the Annual Door Decorating Contest. Mrs. Omar's class won the contest with a Christmas tree on her door while Mr. Engle's class dressed up as shepherds and kings for their classroom decorations.

The choir surprised the audience and pulled out kazooos during the concert they gave with the band.

SILVER JUBILEE

CHS' 25TH BIRTHDAY

On January 10, 1986, we celebrated our 25th birthday at this campus. Students came to school finding it decorated with colorful streamers, banners, and balloons. Alumni from the class of 1961 were able to view a presentation that was given at snack. The presentation included performances given by the cheerleaders, songleaders, and drill team. Several short speeches were given by people such as Mayor Al Lopez and former 1961 principal Gordon Duncan. Fifty cakes were served to students and faculty during snack and lunch.

That night, students attended a special dance hosted by D.J. Raechel Donahue of KIIS FM. Students at the dance recieved autographed photographs of Donahue, got their pictures taken with their friends, ate cake and danced the night away. Happy 25th Birthday CHS!!! Photo 1. During Oingo Boingo week students participated in snack and lunch time activities in an all out campus effort to get a free campus concert. These activities included games; the Post Card Slide, Post Office, the Post Card Relay, the Great Post-Card Sigh Off, and the Post Card Search. There was also Oingo Boingo music played on the announcements and during snack and lunch. At the week's end we heard on KIIS FM, that ol' Corona High was in fourth place . . . and so we kept on writing those post cards . . . and kept on . . . Photo 1. Tracey Draper 2. Suzi Honeter, Drap-

The MDA Dance was sponsored by the Executive Council and chaired by Jana Thacker. The participants raised over eight hundred dollars for the National Muscular Dystrophy Association by obtaining pledge donations for their dancing efforts. Students danced from noon till midnight in the Star Room to music provided by Jennifer Scarpini's D.J.'s, while Valerie Bulhuis and her cohorts hauled in donated hamburgers, hot dogs, and cokes to refuel the tired dancers; many who filled breaktime writing KISSFM cards. MATH DEPARTMENT

$$A^2 + B^2 = C^2$$

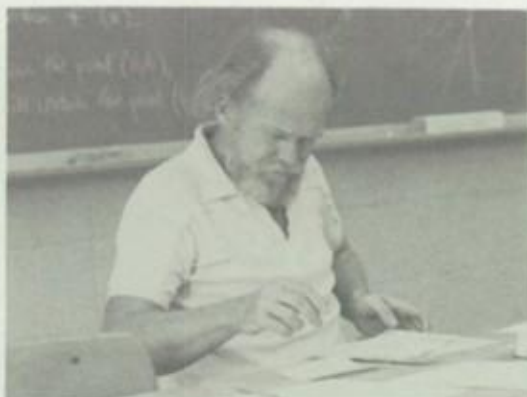

For the first year of high school, sophomores are required to take a mathematics course in order to graduate. After that year, some students like Michelle Spanier choose to continue taking it because it will be 'helpful' in filling college entrance requirements. Higher math classes like Geometry and Calculus are taken by students who are planning to enter a career where higher math is essential, such as Eric Mansell, and Harry Yuan. But other students like Ronnie Lopez, enjoyed working with figures, while others found math frustrating but always a challenge. Photos: 1. Mrs. Barkauskus 2. Mrs. Shoemaker 3. Tina Hageman 4. SPIR

Spirit Week took place during the first week of the second semester. The Spirit Court was announced at snack on Monday by nurses, housewives and shady ladies. Incidentally, Monday was Stuffed Animal Day. The Spirit Court was: Jeff Ashcraft, Kirk Harkey, Snoopy Villasenor, Rick Sanchez, Eric Wilson, Danny Nazarek, and Thadius Daniels. At the Court Slave Auction on Tuesday, Jana Thacker and Valerie Bulthuis were found dressed as spies. Eric Wilson and Snoopy Villasenor were seen on Wednesday wearing tutus and following their owners around. Wierdo Day called for spiked and colored hair, clashing clothes and make-up that was very out-of-the-ordinary. Thursday was Gender Bender Day. We didn't find many guys dressed like girls but several spirited girls, such as Tina Woodworth, were dressed as guys. Rick Sanchez won the Belching Contest which was held at Snack. The final day of Spirit Week was Jocko Day as well as Mr. Weber's last day at CHS. At snack, we found a Dolly Parton look-a-like singing farewells to Mr. Weber. At the game that night, Snoopy Villasenor was crowned Spirit King. Photo: 1. John Duino 2. Tina Woodworth, Jana Thacker, Val Bulthuis, Tusdi Vopat, Eric Wilson, Snoopy Villasenor 3. BLOOD

'IT WON'T HURT'

It was Valentine's Day and the campus was dotted with small bobbing red heart balloons as students donated their blood to the Riverside County Blood Bank to aid their severely depleted supply. With the promise 'It won't hurt' Patti Whitehat and her ASB committee fed cookies and orange juice to the donors, filled balloons, and helped the nurses from the blood bank. Hebie Castro, 'It felt funny afterward . . . ' while Kristine Barnes sorta lost a few minutes once the needle was removed. In all, 117 pints of blood were collected; not quite enough to beat Norco High, but more than enough to aid the blood bank supply. Photo 1. Tony Colapinto, Diane Behrens 2. Ruben Barrera 3. SCIENCE FAIR

Which melts faster, Margerine or Butter? Do you know what color is most visible in the dark? or the effects of Nutra-Sweet? If so you witnessed the 85-86 Science Fair. Such projects were entered by students in hopes of solving the mysteries of the world and possibly landing a spot on Nova. And some students even won! Harry Yuan took first place in the mathematics and physical sciences division with his "Mathematical Induction" entry. Jennifer Dexter placed second, Mark McCleary placed third, while Tim Shea placed fourth. Under the category of Ecology, Shree McGlocklin won first place, Kelcey Gordon placed second, Guy Knox — third, and Sandi Calopinto placed fourth. In the Medicine and Health division, Linda Harnish came in first place, while Brandon Paul, Rangram Chandran, and Kristine Siegers took second, third and fourth, in that order. In the Biological Sciences, Kristine Jundanian placed first and Cheryl Beloz took second, while Gary Hawley placed third. Photo 1: Steve Rivera 2: Kary Brady 3: Matt Knez, Gary Stockburger.

The idea of being placed in arts and crafts or photo class often appeals to many students because it provided a break from academic classes, or a chance to "KICK BACK" and create. In Mr. Baughman's class, Jerry Medina was busy for weeks doing his canvas painting. After weeks of working on it, however, he painted over it because it was not his style. As for Jeff Jensen, he found calligraphy to be boring. Helen Rekosiewicz found out that photography was not as simple as focus and click. Things like f:stops and shutter speeds would make a picture confusing. Lisa Schmidt and Dena Brownlow had problems of their own in Mr. Nino's class, trying to get their pictures in before Monday's critique. Gina Stabile thought the best things in Mrs. Omar's class were the clay fights, which caused Mrs. Omar to come unglued. Photo 1: Michelle Ensley. 3. Matt Stevens. 4. Brian Malloy. 7. Mrs. Gray. 8. BOYS BASKETBALL

PANTHERS WIN CONSOLATION TROPHY

The Panther Boys' Basketball Team had a good beginning, in pre-season play, Corona came home with the Consolation titles from the Riverside County Tournament. In the championship game Corona defeated La Sierra with Dan Nazarek setting the pace as he would do throughout the season, as the final buzzer found Corona in front 47-42. In first round league play Arlington fell to the Panthers with Mike Kummer, Jay Long, and Nazarek all hitting in the double figures. Against North Corona had an excellent outing, hitting 77%; Mark Grizzle had a good game in relief but North pulled away in the fourth quarter. Perris almost took the Corona Panthers, with Bill Humes strong game under the boards, Corona pulled it out 53-51. Rick Turner did an excellent job in the second quarter on defense. At the next outings Moreno turned the boards on the Panthers as we went down 48-51, even though we were strong from the floor and the free throw line. Nazarek was hot against Ramona as he netted 23, followed by Kummer with 17. We were ahead at half in the hard fought cross-town battle with Norco, but the Cougars repeated their 1985 performance and pulled it out in the final quarter. In second round play CIF playoffs were uppermost in the minds of Pratt's Panthers. Arlington again fell as Wayne McKinney came alive; Eric Wilson had his best performance to date and Turner saw much action. We got off to a slow start against league champions North, but really had strong second and fourth quarters. Kummer continued to sink his outside shots and be a defensive battler. Hemet and Perris were defeated and with CIF hopes we met the competitive Moreno Vikings, outscoring them in the third quarter and having a defensive battle in the fourth, fans watched at the game and a CIF berth slipped away, McKinney and Nazarek both had strong performance at the boards. Pratt was well pleased with the competitive attitude and endurance of the Panthers. Turner, Kummer, Humes, McKinney and Nazarek all hit in the double figures in the last surge for Panther Pride against Norco at seasons end; with the score tied Norco sank an outside shot on the buzzer to sink the Panthers to their knees. Under Coach Robles the Junior Varsity had an excellent season with Jason Humphrey receiving the Coaches Award; Scott Longerbone-Most Improved; Rich Zelazowski-Hustle Award; and the Academic Achievement Award went to Longerbone. Varsity honors were given as Mike Kummer and Dan Nazarek made the All-League first place team as Wayne McKinney was honored with a second team award. Team awards were given by Coach Pratt to Kummer as Most Valuable; as Gus Arce did for the Junior Varsity; Most Improved Varsity-Bill Humes, Hustle-Kummer; Academic Achievement Awards-Humes, Eric Koda; while Dan Nazarek and Wayne McKinney received the Coaches' Award. GIRLS BASKETBALL

McCALL NAMED TO ALL LEAGUE

Season play the Panthers got off to a 50/50 start; Coach James began to see the competitive strengths would carry them through a successful season. Pulling out close games against Rim of the World and Shella Valley the Panthers gained needed confidence in themselves and the team unit as Joyce Hayes had a strong game with twelve points and sophomore Shellie McCall began to show a dominance at the point. With a 5-8 record, overall in league play, the Panthers felt the injuries to Lisa Miller and Christine Weaver. Season opener against Arlington, the Panthers had a game, representative of the season. A competitive game, this time the Panthers pulled it out by one point, other times it went the other way. Against Arlington they topped the stats for Corona. Later Corona clearly dominated the Lions as Hayes had one of her best games with twenty-two points in the 64-42 victory. Julie Vitale had an impressive defensive game and Julie Vitale downed ten and performed well in her defensive role at center. Nina Manlove emerged as a leading offensive player at the seasons' start and maintained her efforts throughout the season. Coach James' favorite game was against Perris, on their court, "Corona played exceptionally well." with Hays making a total of ten points, Manlove, McCall, Pam Randel, and Vitale each had eight, while Michelle Robinson and Rosa Serrato had a strong game at guard. The win over Perris put Corona in a tie for the league race with Norco. Against Ramona, Manlove and McCall proved to be among the leagues competitive players from the floor. And against Hemet the Panthers truly showed team dominance, Corona outrebounded Hemet 49-24, Randel had ten points, as McCall led the Panthers to a 56-43 victory. With the outstanding Junior Varsity season, 17-2, Corona record books should show Ivy League dominance next year. All league honors went to Nina Manlove-Honorable Mention and Shellie McCall received First Team Honors. Joyce Hayes was awarded the Coach's Trophy at season end ceremonies, while McCall and Manlove were awarded Co-MVP honors. Coach James awarded JV honors to Elizabeth Janes-MVP; Maryann Sekel, Chris Lara-Co-Captain; with the Coaches going to Julie Nelson. In their first year of Ivy League competition, the girl's soccer team finished their second season with a 9-1-2 record. They finished league play in second place just one half game behind Hemet, which qualified them for a spot in the CIF playoffs. They lost 4-2 in the first round, however, to Villa Park. The Panthers only loss in league play was against Hemet, 4-2. Goals were made by Amy Johnson and Kristie Young. The team had a chance to move closer, but one of their goals was called back on an offside call. One of the most intense games was a 0-0 tie with Norco, which ended after 80 minutes of regulation play. When asked about the game, Johnson said they did not score because they "just didn't have it." The Panthers had a chance to pull ahead on a breakaway shot by Young, but it was stopped by the Norco goalie. Johnson had a goal shot deflect off of the upright and bounce away from the goal. "It missed by inches," said Coach Gomes. Corona took 16 shots to Norco's 9. Corona goalie Lisa Bell gave yet another great performance with three saves. After the game, Gomes praised his fullback line Darla Bell, Michaela Roof, Kelly DeLange, and Julie Kavanaugh. The first game against Norco was continued one week later on the Panther field. Trying to break the tie, 20 minutes were allowed for play. A win would have clinched first place in Ivy League, but again it ended in a 0-0 tie. The Panthers played without midfielder Meghan Sjurson, who was out with injuries. The team had a shot early in overtime but did not seriously threaten afterwards. "There was not enough time," said Gomes. In their game against Moreno Valley, the Panthers won 4-2, Nikki Roof scored 2 goals. Amy Easum scored one and Kristin Werner scored her first goal in two years of play. Lisa Bell had 5 saves, while Julie Kavanaugh also scored a goal, only she scored for the Vikings. The offense was lead by Panther "ANAK Attacks", which were front line attacks by Amy, Nikki, Amy, and Kristie. Meghan Sjurson and Darlene Webb, both played consistently, helping the Panthers in their winning season. BOYS SOCCER WINS LEAGUE

The beginning was a period of reorganization, concentration, and wonderment as the Panthers ended pre-league play with three games and a fifth place trophy at the Rubidoux tournament. Corona defeated Bonita 3-0 and was taken by Burroughs in the next but they returned to defeat Victor Valley and North. North ended in a shoot-out with Mike Zubak scoring on the sixth attempt. Armando Leon was named to the all-tournament team. And the unit began to form under the new lead of Coach Grove. Wonderment changed to confidence as Corona stopped the highly rated Arlington Lions in the league opener, Leon showed strength as the nucleus of the Panther offense, assisted from center field by Dan Archuleta and Milo Way. At North the Corona offense met a strong defense preventing a Panther victory. Corona took Hemet 2-0 and over powered Perris on their home field. Manuel Nevarez had an excellent outing, backed by Kelly Carpenter and Mikel Baughman at half-back as did Kevin Scambray in the goal box. Phil Farias, Steve Dempsy and Mike Zubak again anchored the defense for Corona, stopping numerous attacks as Corona pulled to the front of the league with a 5-1 win over Ramona. Leon had two goals, Archuleta, Matt Gavin and Way one each. Senior, Rick Selby had a strong afternoon at midfield. A highly charged team simply overpowered Norco 3-1, at mid season, with an impressive display of talent from Archuleta in center field. After a scoreless first half, Gavin scored and Leon added two as Corona continually hammered the Norco goal box. Espinoza had one of his best games of the season against the Cougars. As the second round began Corona proved their strength as they downed Arlington again 4-2. Kevin Scambray was most impressive in the Panther goal box. The Panthers totally dominated in second round play, followed by Perris and Moreno Valley. After a rain delay Corona again met North ... we scored two and again the Huskie defense closed us down as they took it away 3-2, leaving Corona 1/2 game ahead in league standings (it would all come down to Norco). But the Cougars were stopped in their attempt to be the spoilers, as the Panthers defeated Norco 3-0. Scambray recorded his fifth shutout of the season. Espinoza, Leon, and Gavin netted the scores on assists from Archuleta as Zubak and the fullback line kept the goal box clean. The Norco win gave us the Ivy League Championship. Corona entered CIF play against La Serna, winning its first win in CIF playoffs since 1981. Leon scored on a rebound from his penalty kick early in the game and the rest turned into a defensive battle and we held them scoreless. Corona hosted top ranked Esperanza to loose their bid for the championship bracket as the Panthers lost a hard fought battle to the Aztecs 5-0. Ending an outstanding season with a 18-2-3 overall season record. At season end Armando Leon, Mike Zubak, and Kevin Scambray were named to the All Ivy League first team with Leon being selected by the coaches as the league's Most Valuable. Milo Way, Dan Archuleta, and Matt Gavin received second team honors. In addition, Leon was honored with All CIF First team selection. Team honors on the varsity were: MVP Offense and MVP-Armando Leon; MVP Defense-Mike Zubak; Captain-Dan Archuleta; US Army honors-Rick Selby; Coaches Award-Steve Dempsy; Academic-Rick Selby. In play the Varsity went undefeated again this year in league play. Coach Hart awarded Jim Anderson MVP honors; MVP Offense-Joel Bonilla; MVP Defense-Robert Rivera; Captain-Brian Glenn; and the Coaches Award went to Ron Robles, with David Jennings receiving the Academic Award.

2:30 - SCHOOLS OUT!

At 2:30, students could get free from those "aching assignments" and "nagging teachers." Although Liz Andrade dreaded to go home for she knew Chemistry and Geometry would be at her calling, Wendy Paine would spend an hour alone in her room just listening to the radio. On Fridays, Mrs. Hadcox merely goes home to let her dogs out and feed her husband, just to return later that evening for the activity. All and all, students just appreciate the fact that after 2:30, the time is their own.

GET A JOB GET A JOB GET A JOB

Get a job? But how much does it pay? Will I be able to make my next insurance payment? You mean I can't ask Dad for an extra twenty come Saturday night? For most having a job meant a sense of freedom in having your own finances. For those like Karen Gutter it also meant laying a little away for college expenses and new shoes. A job at Corona Community Hospital gave Rachael Horn exposure into an entirely different world from school and home, plus a feeling of personal worth. Many students got their first experience in the art of communicating as Ron Opez did in his daily trips to Knott's. Fortunately we also found out that working provided some memorable, if not humorous, experiences. Kim Hodges was cleaning the copy machine at Corona Employment, bumping the wrong button and ran off numerous copies of herself. James Davis really liked working with others and seeing a project go from start to finish. Tom LeBeau with Gazebos Unlimited. But when everything came to a close, having that paycheck was not too bad.

WORK EXPERIENCE AND ROP

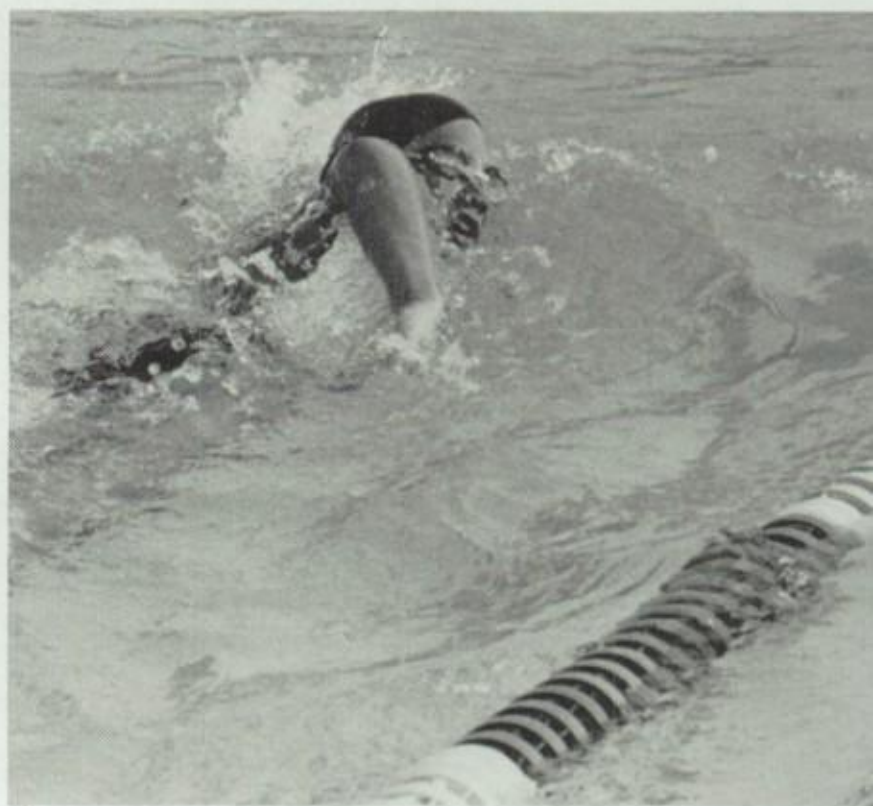

ROP provided students with on the job training in various courses by providing them with basic job skills. Students prepared themselves for jobs and earned credits toward graduation. After the completion of an ROP course, students received a Certificate of Training. In many instances instructors assisted students in job placement. For students who already had jobs, the work experience program was a special course offering which allowed students to receive credits for working which went toward graduation. This sounded really great to Tara Muff and Lori Overton, both boxgirls at local supermarkets, who took two periods of work experience. Photo 1: Mrs. Martinez 2. Mr. Pierce 3. Mrs. Page 4. MOCK TRIAL

Did Karen Dennis, long time straight A student, try to change her B in computer science to an A? Then did she vandalize the registrar's office where grades were kept to cover up the crime? This was the case; and a group of Corona High Students, coached by Mr. Bill Wallace, were out to defend and prosecute the defendant. For two grueling Saturdays legal minds from Corona dueled with the likes from Poly, Norco, Arlington and North high schools. Corona ended in third place at the end of the competition. Corona students; Brock Gray; Tammi Burnett; Marcie Beasley; David Brannen; Keith Fenstermacher; Mitch Muirhead; Joanne Levy; Gary Hawley; Dan Mahn; Vivian Aguilera; Dawnya Goode; Rangram Chandran; Johnna Taylor; Rick Simmons; Eric Simmons; all played parts varying from witness to lawyers. Corona got a verdict of guilty when they prosecuted against Poly and again won the verdict against Norco and outscored both Norco and Arlington. Joanne Levy received a trophy for best portrayal of the accused. Marcie Beasley was nominated for best defensive attorney while David Brannon was nominated best Prosecuting Attorney. Dan Mahn was also up in the prosecution witness division.

The home economics classes included courses in cooking, sewing, and home and family planning. These classes enabled students, such as Wendy Williams and Gina Stabile to learn the mysteries of preparing fine cuisine, caring for a newborn (egg), and sewing and designing their own clothing. The 'AG' department gave students a totally different environment; pig pens and plants; as they raised their animals, often to see them slaughtered. For Frank Ruvalcaba that was "different". After winning at the State Fair in August Mr. List and Mr. Doerr's metal and drafting students really got turned on, producing a wide range of well crafted drawings and products. Ian Kindberg, under the watchful eye of Mr. Burdick, found great satisfaction in his project in advanced wood, as he and his classmate worked toward their grand finale, 'thee' Tyler Mall Show. SPEECH

BURROUGHS HODGES WINNERS

During the year several Corona High students participated in regional speech contests. In the VFW, David Burroughs took first place in area competition while Amy Wills and Theresa Goldston received second and third respectively. Kim Hodges was the winner in the Lions' International Club's local competition and advanced on to state contests; in addition, Amy Wills was a finalist in the area meet. The participants in the Native Sons of the Golden West were Wills and Michele Stainbrook. Mrs. Rubin, speech coach, is looking forward to continued success in the program as this year's participants were all underclassmen. Photo 1: Amy Wills, Kim Hodges, Mr. Holmes of the Lion's Club.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

HOLA! BON JOUR! HELLO!

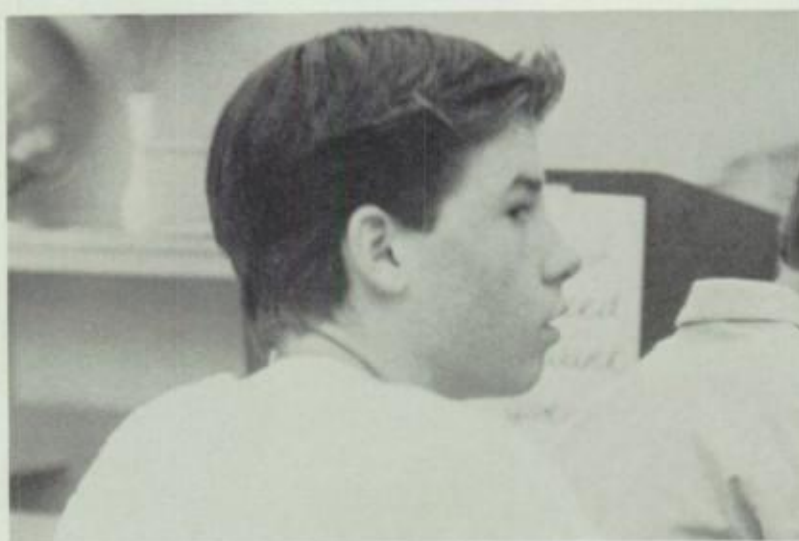

Foreign language wasn't all "Si's and "No's"! It was a year long accelerated designed to teach students the languages's grammer and and pronunciation. Burroughs found Edwards Van Muyen's german class an enjoyable challenge. Mrs. Pierce's spanish classes students often found themselves acting out phrases with comprehension. In Mrs. Davila's classroom Tom LeBeau really discovered Loteria was fun and helpful to get the language down. With the new state requirem graduation and college entrance, enrollment in foreign language increased, as course offerings. Photo 1. Mr. Edwards Van Muyen 2. Anatomy • Biology • Chemistry • Physics SCIENCE

Science course offerings were as varied as the weather. There was everything from basic life science with Mr. Calvert to A.P. Physics with Mr. Engle. All students were encouraged to participate in the annual science fair, but for some people like Scott Ozenne, just getting to class was competition enough. Meanwhile Mr. Wallace's Biology classes saw a lot more bookwork (he was afraid to trust students like Karen Kinser with lab knives.) Besides dressing up as cool Burger King shepards, the A.P. Physics class placed bets on the success of Mr. Engle's demonstrations and experiments to relieve the pressures of the course. All in all the science departments had a very successful year and one looking forward to the use of the new facilities. Photo 1. Fish. 2. Mr. Robles. 3. Mr. Engle, Eric Mansell. 4. Mr. Cash. 5. The CHS classified employees of '86 spent many long hours trying to keep the school in working order. If they weren't trying to find or feed you they were always trying to keep you there. Mitch Shockley and Gina Uriarte have many fond memories of Danny and Buzzard, whom on many occasions helped them decide that they really did want to attend 4th period. Meanwhile the ladies in attendance kept busy keeping track of where you had been (or should have been) and keeping Mom informed also. During snack and lunch the stomach's best friends kept extremely busy. With the growing number of students and the shortened snack it was hard some days to get everyone fed in time. It was not uncommon to see Chris Colladay sneaking his unfinished donuts to Mr. Finnegan's Class. Photo 1: Sheila Rhodes, Joyce Shelton, Jean Bice, Emily Rodriguez. 2. INDIVIDUALIZED EDUCATION

A Highly Dedicated Program

Students enrolled in the Special Education program recieved instruction in depth in a highly individualized manner, meeting their special needs; whether it be problems in reading comprehension or difficulty learning English; and students learning disabilities. Teachers and aides were strongly dedicated to each and every student; which helped make an excellent relationship and sense of cooperation to make a good atmosphere between teachers, aides, and students. SOFTBALL

CHAMPIONS FROM THE START

With the goal of a CIF Championship the '85 Ivy League Champions advanced through their season with a never ending display of fine individual performances and team unity. Losing only two starters last season, the team's nucleus centered around the strong pitching arm of Sandy Mathis and the likes of the never ending defensive strengths of Denise Wilson at second base and Julie Vitale behind the plate and the leadership of Elke Rosenbauer and Michelle Robinson. Sophomore Rene McCall quickly became an asset at first and in relief of Mathis, as Shellie McCall filled the opening at short and was strong at the plate. Wilson came alive as a defensive powerhouse against Norte Vista and helped hold off Moreno 2-1 in the league opener; demonstrating her offensive skill that would continue throughout the season. Pitching Coach Pucci saw newcomers Cheri Lara and Julie Bladow (her third win) give impressive performances at the plate as Corona totally overpowered Perris. Senior Michelle Robinson's right field continued to be an defensive strength as her bat was for the offensive. Amy Johnson and Francine Watson rounded out the outfield with strength and quickness. The consistent strong performances at bat by Mathis, Robinson, Johnson, and Wilson gave Corona the offensive edge against their opponents. Head coaches Byrd and Penter praised the continued spirit and skill demonstrated by the entire team throughout the season. Johnson's and Wilson's speed and 'Daring-Do' gave the Panthers enthusiasm and that necessary boost in several close instances to pull ahead on the score board. Corona's bench was definitely untypical and provided relief, strength that was totally uncharacteristic of their opponents. Lara and Latricia Kelly, plus Bladow gave the team depth to make a smooth running unit and the league championship. SWIMMING

ANOTHER NEW COACH

After a rough beginning of the season the swim team, lead by new coaches Peggy Evans and Merry Finch banded together and began their pursuit of excellence in memory of Brandon Paul. A good all-around team, the boy's squad showed promise of being a major Ivy-league power. With Chris Colladay, Eric Dorn, Mark Magee, and Guy Knox in the medley relay. Followed by Knox in the 200 free and Dorn and Magee in the 200 IM. The Panthers always had a very strong start of their dual meets. Colladay, David Schillen and Ralph Jensen followed up that start with strong performances in the short free events. Meanwhile back at the pond . . . The girls team lead by All-American Alyssa Dorn, lacked the depth of the boy's team but had many impressive individual performances. The varsity medley relay team of sophomores Kari King and Cynthia Rosenthal and juniors Chris Perkins and Dorn struggled to qualify for CIF while Kari Mendrella swam strong breaststroke races. Jennifer Heistand covered the short free events while Dorn swam the 100 fly and Perkins and King the 100 back. BASEBALL

HIT HARD MEN!

"With good reason, Corona High baseball coach Terry Phillips believes his team can give the back of its hand to most of its rivals on the Ivy League" — Jerry Soifer

The 1986 Panther baseball season began with a double-header against Canyon High School, long time rival to Corona, which ended in a split: 1st game Corona 4-2, 2nd game Canyon 4-3. Mike Kummer was the winning pitcher in the first game throwing a six hitter, striking out four and walking four. Pre-league play also included a game against Rubidoux to which the Panthers lost 9-8, and a double-header against Apple Valley whom Corona beat the first game despite the cold wind conditions. The second game was rained out. When league play began with a game against Arlington, the entire team was tense. Indeed the game proved to be close, but the Panthers emerged victorious with an 8-7 win. Kummer pitched until the seventh inning and was relieved by John Vigrass.

After Arlington came North, last year's league champions. Corona beat North 8-4, and there was no doubt who had the better team.

Coach Phillips was worried that after the victory his team would be over-confident and not take Perris seriously. But such was not the case when the team ended the game with an 8-2 score.

Corona's returning starters were a main factor of excellent team play. The outfield consisted of Chris Gonzalez (LF), All-CIF outfielder Raul Moreno (CF), and Scott Gavett (RF). In the infield: at 3rd base-Chris DeMola, playing outstandingly at shortstop-Jason Young, at 2nd base-Jesse Ramirez, and at 1st base-JD Tengberg. The pitching staff included: Kummer, Vigrass, Mario Campos and Gene Stuckenschneider, while David Cianflocco, Tom LeBeau, and Tony Garcia covered home plate. TRACK TEAM

MAINTAINS THE TRADITION

At the beginning of the season Coach Newton wished for more rain, and he got it, because he said most of his key athletes were weary after competing in winter sports and more time was needed for the coaching staff to recharge their Ray-O-Vacs. By the end of the year individual performance was realized and the team as a solid unit was accomplished. Matt Gavin ran the sprints, hurdles and relays. Snoop Villaseñor and Jason Uhles joined Gavin to be the Panthers' competitors in the sprints in early league competition. Corona is traditionally strong in the pole vault event, and this year was no exception with seniors Rick Sanchez and Ron Laird, and junior Milo Way realized 11'. Wendy Thomas and Sandy Randle ran sprints, while Wendy Knoll was strong on the hurdles for the girls. Roseland Werner threw the shot and discus for the Panthers. John Ross and Tim King joined cross country runners Gus Arce, Morgan Mackey and senior Brad Glassick to give strength in the distance events for the boys, while Meghan Sjurson lead the Panthers with continued nerve strength to out distance her opponents in the mile and 2 mile events. Corona was lead in the field events by Dan Nazarek, Keith Kelly, Eric Charito, and Keith Fenstermacher. Kelly had impressive throws in the discus against Norco and Moreno. Wayne McKinney and AJ Mariano had strong outings against Hemet in the high jump and gave Corona strength in the 330 hurdles. Pam Randle led the girls in the high jump competition. With the likes of Derek Gutierrez, Snoop Villaseñor, in the hurdles and Arce and Sjurson in the distance events; Corona Track will maintain its tradition of excellence. Team

BOY'S TENNIS

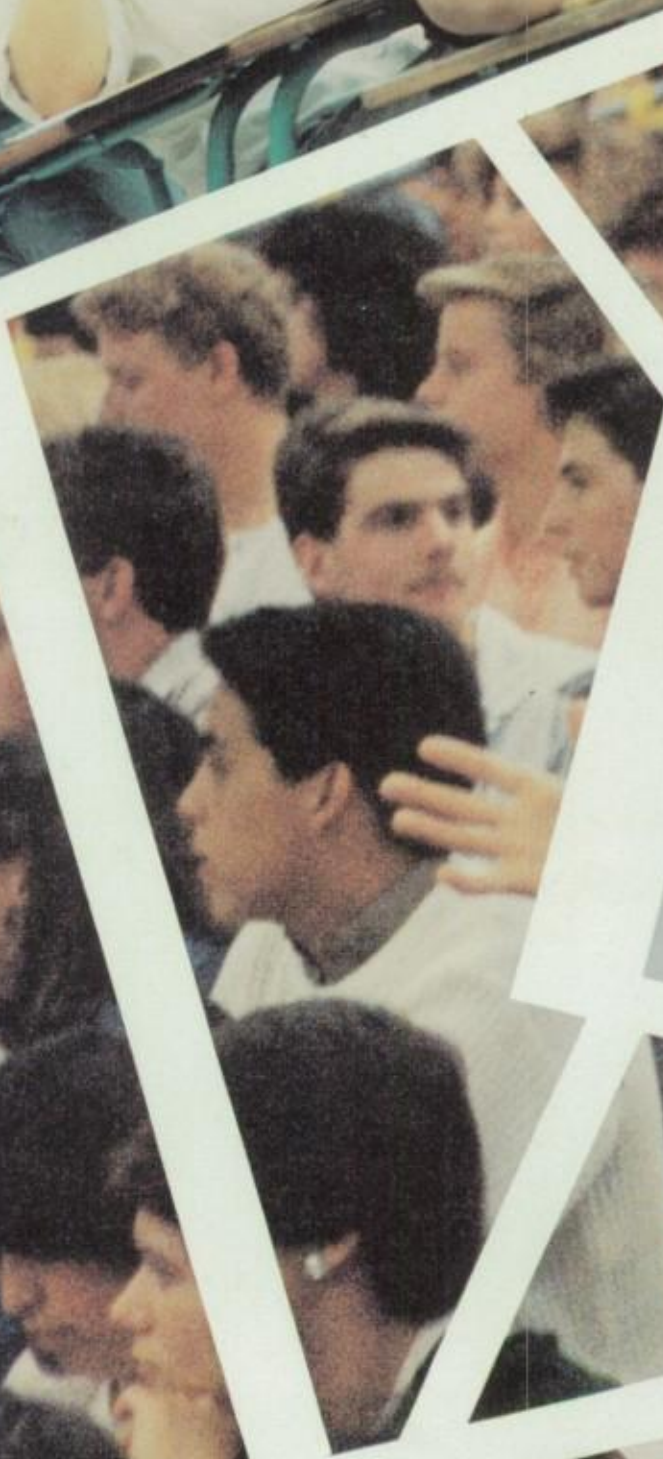

NINO RETURNS

Led by the power and attitude of senior Erik Koda, the Panthers had one of the best spring seasons in the history of CHS. In pre-league and early season play, Koda found little competition as he easily defeated his opponents 6-0. Rob Grant and John Palmieri played the number two and three spots respectively. Palmieri and Steve Saunders had an excellent season in doubles play on the varsity level as the number one combination. Playing powerful tennis, Rick Turner and Mike Munoz were strong on the back court in the number two doubles position, as they rounded out Coach Nino's Varsity Squad. Don Woo and Mark Krueger rounded out the individual performance spots. Corona was a true powerhouse this year. SEE-YA AT THE REUNION

The last three years at Corona were very unique. We had a lot of fun times and not so fun times. For many, there were embarrassing moments. For Patty Rodriguez, it was getting caught with Stan Grey breaking rule #2; Brian O'Toole-knocking over Mr. Palmatier's bike in front of the class; Kurt Tengen-the football team; Monica Woolls-trying to change into her band uniform on an extremely crowded bus and not being successful; Jeff Lantry-when he had to have Mona push his car to get it started; Kim Hisere-when she got trash canned; Lena Rachell-when she forgot to wear her bloomers under her cheerleading uniform; Bernie Simons when he got chased by Danny and Buzz; Stephanie Brannon-when her desk fell over while she was sitting in it; Doug Barnes-watching Kelly Smith pull down Kim Neese's pants at lunch. With those embarrassing moments we also had our share of problems. April Casada's worst problem was getting up in the morning; Jeff Lantry-Algebra II all three years; Brian Pierce-proofs in Geometry; Kurt Tengen-Mr. Louderback's Government class; Janet Beloz-getting back from lunch "on time"; Max Pfiffner- procrastinating homework; Gina Stabile-"being there"; Rene Karlson-trying to graduate; Viki Avalos-trying not to be a "goody-goody"; and Catherine Jaimez-getting up in the morning, getting to school, and getting her work done. After our hard, stressful day is over, we all go and do our own thing. For Danny Nazarek, it was off to basketball practice; Karlene Newbry-Dawn Paulhamus's house; Lori Myers-to her refrigerator; Renee Pell-home to listen to the Cure; Jeannie Boone-to flag practice (yuck); Robert Reed-when he wasn't in detention, he went to work to support his money spending habit; Ramona Acevedo-home to sleep; Radio is such a big part of our lives that we all like to dedicate songs to one another. If the chance was given, Julie Robinson would dedicate "Endless Love" to Jim Runnalls; Derek Mazer-"Lady of My Heart" to Chris Zimmer; Sabrina Storrer- "Inspiration" to Gara; Joy Hayes-"I'm Missing You" to J.L. and Tony Burell; Cynthia Herrera- "Everybody Dance" to all of her friends; Lena Rachell-"Strawberry Girl" to Kristine Barnes; Gina Stabile- "Total Eclipse of the Heart" to 85's #18; Anthony Marudez-"Fat Boys" to Ruben Najar; Robert Reed-"Everytime that I See You" to Raquel Prado; and Lyana Hernandez-"Rock Me Tonight" and "Saving All My Love" to Paco Pena. After graduation, we will all be leading different lives. It will be years before we see the people we graduated with. That brings us up to reunions. At our 20th class reunion, Jim Padilla said that he thinks he'll see his best friend Brian Pierce; Denise Cottom-old people; Melinda Senevir-it's beyond her imagination; Michele Scott-Not Mr. MacKey (ha-ha); Mary Morales-people who were skinny now fat, and people who were fat now skinny; Kurt Tengen-wrinkles; Patty Rodriguez-Demola with an uncrashed motorcycle; Greg Sigsbee-Robert Reed with an unfinished Volkswagon; Lena Rachell-Kris Barnes and Thadeus Daniels married with six kids and a dog; Anthony Marudeio-Jack Weber in a senior citizen's suit; and Jeannie Boone-bald men and fat women. There is a lot of fixation on the year 2000. Where do you think you and your friends will be? Ian Kindberg thinks he and his friends will still be making food runs at Albertson's; Greg Sigsbee-still "going out" with Jennifer Davis while everyone else is married; Brian Pierce-in a nut house; Kim Hiser-flying helicopters; Doug Barnes-not in Corona; Shannon Gogerty-still living in Corona, depending on mom and dad; Stan Grey-at one big party; and Lori Poole-living in Europe with Gina and Patty. Can you believe it? These three years went by so fast. Just like everyone said that they would. What will you remember about high school? Jeannie Boone said she would remember Mrs. Cutter (the best advisor); Max Pfiffner-Jerome Brower, Joe Gerster, and Mark Navarro; Doug Barnes; Ken Woodall and Mr. Newton; Stephanie Brannon-Shelley Ayrest; Angie Angulo-Sandra Maciel; Valerie Buthuis-Tusdi Vopat and all her buds; Greg Sigsbee-Mr. Baughman's hands and sound effects "type of things"; Julie Robinson; My best friend Bebe, we've been through a lot; Sabrina Storrer-Patti Whitehat, her Bofa; Ian Kindberg-Thad's afro, Scottie's Frankle Face, Hoppy's lip, Mike's famous needle, Wheaser's ears, Robbie's block, Chaucey's slant, and Ronnie's visor; and Gina Stabile-David Drysol, "it was fun while it lasted."

By the time you read this note this,
our senior year, will be just about over.
I will have either succeeded or failed in my Quest to melt the Ice. I know you know how I feel, but I felt I still had a chance.
Hopefully I will have succeeded, but with the chance of failure, I would like to take this space to say, I think "I Love You" I know as long as you read this you will remember me. These past three years of at least being your friend where very special. "Until we meet again, which we will".

To All Our Wrestlers -

Just a little message to say you were great!! Most of you started out as little, floppy fishes and now, as coach would say, you are all stud! We've enjoyed being part of the 1985-86 Corona Wrestling team. We won't forget how funny you guys looked when doing your warm up exercises or hearing those strange calls like - leg in, crotch ride, and the ever so popular
"Saturday Night"!

Thanks for everything guys - it was fun!
